My Patchwork Quilt Thursday, January 21, 2021. PEACH MUFFINS I was trying to delete some past pictures from my phone so I could free up some space. I do take lots of pictures when I am cooking/baking in the kitchen. Two sets were back from December 20. I matched one set with the blog post and deleted them. The other set didn't match up with any post. I remembered from the pictures that they ...

Place the quilt blocks in the center of the quilt batting. Baste the blocks using your preferred method. I tend to use the curved quilter's safety pins and boy did I use a ton of them on this project. Pros: I found it much easier to baste each individual block versus basting an entire quilt at once (My knees were much happier that I didn't have to spend all of that time bending over my quilt ...

I have started several quilt projects but failed to complete any - as yet. I've lacked focus and commitment but have allowed myself to take it one day at a time. I knew that eventually the joy of working with fabric would return, even if that means short bursts of activity on some days and none the next. I'll take it. This quilt in progress was again inspired by a vintage quilt. It is a simple ...
